

"Something Old, Something New, Something Borrowed, Something Blue" Mentoring Guide

Old Mentors (Current)

List your mentors who know the rules of your profession and are the "go to" people in your field.

New Mentors (Current)

List your "out of the box" mentors who are experts in areas outside of your field.

Borrowed Mentors (Current)

List your mentors who work in your field AND in another field in which you have interest.

Blue Mentors (Current)

List your mentors who may or may not be in your field but know your professional and personal quirks and can offer constructive professional advice.

REVIEW your current Old, New, Borrowed, and Blue mentors. Identify areas where you are lacking mentors and want to have more. Create a new, revised mentor list below.

SEARCH for your mentoring dream team via social media networks and internet searches.

FORMALIZE your mentoring relationships by networking and forming authentic relationships with your dream team.
